Informante Journalists found guilty and their services terminated

Embargo: Immediate Release

Date: 3 August 2011

The Disciplinary Proceedings instituted against the Informante journalists, Ms Brigitte Weidlich and Ms Elizabeth M'ule have been finalized. The disciplinary committee recommended that Ms Weidlich be issued with a final written warning and Ms M'ule with a written warning in respect of the offences for which they were found guilty.

The conduct of Ms M'ule and Weidlich that precipitated the hearings and their actions thereafter are inherently deceitful towards the Trustco Group, the Informante and MISA. Due to the fact the relationship of trust, as required between employee and employer has been violated, the resignation of Ms Weidlich's has been accepted and an executive decision was taken to terminate Ms M'ule's contract of employment, in terms of the provisions of the Labour Act.
